this slender book the last of twenty nine written by kathryn tucker windham over her long and productive life will be an exquisitely bittersweet read for the many fans of the late storyteller and author from selma alabama in she which windham was putting the finishing touches on when she died in june 2011 the author describes how she woke up one day to find that she had an unwanted houseguest an old woman who had suddenly moved into her home and was taking over her life windham referred to this interloper simply as she and here the reader has been invited into the lively colloquy between the author whose spirit has not changed and her alter ego who moves haltingly toward her earthly end she will leave you laughing and crying but also grateful and hopeful this is the first anthology of the author s own favorite ghost stories from the highly successful jeffrey series of books that began in 1969 with 13 alabama ghosts and jeffrey hundreds of thousands of these books have been sold the present volume includes 13 of the best of mrs windham s stories representing mysterious and supernatural doings from alabama georgia tennessee and mississippi most of the stories are related to historical places and sometimes to historical people with sprightly humor and a lifetime spent observing southern culture beloved storyteller kathryn tucker windham shares memories of her childhood in thomasville alabama she affectionately recounts stories about family members friends and favorite pastimes spit scarey ann and sweat bees recalls small town life in the 1920s and 30s garnished with ruminations about folktales and superstitions mrs windham recalls how thurza the family cook tucked a wooden match in her hair to cure a headache and how her father spit in his hat when a rabbit crossed the road she ponders the origins of old sayings and the creativity of children s play before television and air conditioning one thing leads to another mrs windham says ticking off the items she wants us not to forget in every phrase the reader hears her voice almost as if our favorite story teller was in the room many of alabama s finest stories used to begin with a reference to the night the stars fell and even now there is an inclination among some residents to divide local history into two segments before the stars fell and after the stars fell that would make november 13 1833 the dividing line thousands of alabamians thinking the end of the world was at hand when they saw the heavenly spectacle fell to their knees to plead for mercy and forgiveness others promised eternal renunciation of sin card playing dancing whiskey drinking cursing and associated vices if they were spared whatever catastrophes were in the offing still others jumped upon horses and tried to outrace the fearful menace they believed was pursuing them justin s having the worst trip ever he and his mother are time traders traveling undercover to different alternate realities of earth so they can take valuable resources back to their own timeline in some of these worlds germany won world war i or the world has been destroyed by nuclear warfare justin and his mother are in an america that never became the united states each state is like a country and many of them are at war with one another their mission takes them to virginia which is on the verge of bloody violence with ohio bekie is from california and like the rest of her world is unaware that time traders exist the only reason she s in small town virginia is because her grandmother dragged her there to visit old relatives bekie is just as horrified by the violence and racism of the alternate virginia as justin is and the two are drawn to each other but when full fledged war breaks out between ohio and virginia including a biologically designed plague will either of them manage to get back home forget about home will they make it out alive dying remains one of the last taboo subjects most people will talk about money or even sex before they will dying i think this is true of most people but it seems especially true of baby boomers the generation of which i am a member this reluctance to discuss dying is one of the things i considered when deciding how to structure this book in reality my target audience should be anyone with whom god has not shared their departure date for leaving this world but part of my experience in dealing with the reluctance of people my own age to discuss their own death is that they do have the reality of dealing with the approaching death of their own parents thus some of this material section two will be given from the viewpoint of helping someone prepare to die while the primary section section one will be addressed directly to those preparing for themselves
